

RODNEY GALLOP public relation officer of C.C.C. presents MERLE BOWLES Challenge Trophy to MONICA HEADLEY.

KYKIEL DICKSON on left receives her trophy from ANNE RAMSAMOOJ-MAHABIR.

HAIR WE GO

C.C.C captures 1st prize

Students Kykiel Dickson and Leah George of Civilian Conservation Corps (C.C.C.) under the stewardship of programme Director Major Cheryl Richardson romped home winners the first prize in the hairstyle category, at the Trinidad and Tobago Hair and Beauty Trade show held at Capital Plaza Port-of-Spain by Monica Headley Producer/Director.

Dickson won first prize in the hairstyle category of Upsweep, titled Runaway Bride, she trained at Glamour Works El Socorro for six months.

George also captured the first prize in the hairstyle category of Fantasy, titled Majestic Queen of Spring, she trained under the tutorage of Anne Ramsamooj-Mahabir for six months at the Civilian Conservation Corps headquarters Port-of-Spain.

The winners were presented with replicas of the Challenge Trophies, while 2nd and 3rd place from Servol and Matura Secondary respectively received Trophies were sponsored by the National Training Agency (N.T.A.)

C.C.C and Servol were adjudged winners in the makeup competition, this segment was sponsored by Tres Belle Cosmetic

Left to right Leah George and KYKIEL DICKSON with their winning Trophies.

LEAH GEORGE with her winning hairstyle

Leah George and Kykiel Dickson win at Trinidad and Tobago Annual Hair and Beauty Trade Show